

Application Form for the Quaker Peace and Social Justice Fund

The Peace and Social Justice Fund provides financial support to Quaker peace committees and individual Friends and Attenders to implement the peace and social justice concerns of the Australian Religious Society of Friends. These include reconciliation, disarmament, nonviolent conflict resolution, improving race relations and other related aspects of the Society's work and witness. The Fund encourages individual Friends, Regional Meetings or Australia Yearly Meeting Committees to undertake these activities by paying their costs, such as administrative, equipment, travel and conference expenses. The Fund may also support similar projects by non-Quaker individuals or groups, if sponsored by a Regional Meeting or a Yearly Meeting Committee. See the Quaker Handbook of Practice and Procedure, section 5.6.4 and the relevant parts of 5.6.3 for the complete guidelines.
