

What is

Quaker Quest ... ?

We have found that people inquiring about us:

- want to experience
Quaker worship
- hear what we have to say
- talk to each other and us
about it
- and get an idea
what sort of people we are.

Quaker Quest

explore the Quaker way

Quaker Quest offers you the opportunity to find out about Quakers in an open and relaxed way. A typical Quaker Quest evening includes refreshments, short contributions from a few Quaker speakers, some time for discussion/questions and a half-hour period of Quaker worship.

Quaker Quest is usually offered in a series of between three and six evenings, each covering an aspect of the Quaker way. We ask speakers to address topics from their own experience – to give you a better sense of what Quakers are like.

A series might consist of some of the following:

QUAKERS AND GOD explores how each of us experiences God or whatever is Divine to us. In this session, Quakers talk about what God means to them.

QUAKERS AND EQUALITY explains why equality has always been at the heart of the Quaker faith and is the basis of our other values. You will hear how we have put equality into action.

QUAKERS AND SIMPLICITY explores Quaker interest in simplicity as a means of improving our sense of wellbeing and the wellbeing of the planet.

QUAKERS AND WORSHIP describes how we meet together and explore in stillness and silence the promptings of love and truth in our hearts. For many of us, it is transforming.

QUAKERS AND PEACE go hand in hand. While we are best known for our commitment to international peace-building, you will hear how we are equally committed to peace-making at a personal and community level.

Quaker Quest evenings are open to anyone. You won't be asked to pay. And we never require ourselves or anyone else to sign up to a fixed set of beliefs.
